ETG International Forms Coffee Venture with Top Italian Coffeemaster Manuel Terzi

Gruppo Ricerca Gourmet, LLC to launch proprietary new blends of premium coffees starting in the Greater London market

JUNE 1, 2005 (NEW YORK, LONDON, and BOLOGNA): Gruppo Ricerca Gourmet (GRG), a newly formed joint venture between ETG International's Terroir Group and Manuel Terzi, a leading Italian Coffeemaster, announced today that it will begin operations in the London market for ultrapremium coffees beginning in the fourth quarter of 2005.

GRG combines the strong global branding and marketing capabilities of ETG International with the deep and internationally-recognized coffeemaking expertise of Manuel Terzi.

GRG will initially offer new, proprietary coffee blends, formulated by Mr. Terzi specifically for the tastes and coffee-preparation characteristics of the UK market, to top-ranked restaurants and hotels in London, with other forms of product and UK-wide distribution to follow.

Said Saverio Grazioli-Venier, President and Managing Director of GRG, "It has been an honor to work with Manuel Terzi, whom we feel after a two-year search is the world's best coffeemaster. We look forward to bringing his exquisite coffee creations to London's fast-growing audience of sophisticated coffee-drinkers."

After a successful period of operation in the UK market, GRG plans to expand into additional countries and channels with additional coffee products, said Mr. Grazioli-Venier..

A signing ceremony marking the establishment of the exclusive partnership between ETG International and Mr. Terzi occurred at his Caffè Terzi establishment in Bologna in May.
